

To Whom It May Concern,

We here at American Transport, Inc. fully support Wingline Trucking Inc., located in Granite City, IL, as a freight agent representing our company. We do realize that American Transport, Inc. is not the only company that Wingline Trucking Inc. represents. We are aware Wingline Trucking Inc. represents other trucking companies due to their outstanding customer service and freight contacts that they have displayed during and prior to our relationship with them.

American Transport, Inc. is owned by Transport Investments Inc., which also owns Greentree Transportation, Aetna Freight Lines, and Marathon Transport, Inc. Among all four companies Transport Investments' fleet has over 700 trucks including flatbeds, step decks, double drops, removable gooseneck, and lowboy trailers. As an agent representing American Transport, Inc., Wingline Trucking Inc. has access to Transport Investments' entire fleet. Since Wingline Trucking, Inc. has access to our entire fleet in no way should they be considered a freight brokerage company. Our relationship with Wingline Trucking, Inc. has been successful and we look forward to continued success in the future.
